

yāt) 2. 71. 25; (25) The Pāṇḍavas came out of Gajasāhvaya to go to the forest through a gate at Vardhamānapura (niryayur gajasāhvayāt // vardhamānapuradvāreṇābhiniṣkramya) 3. 1. 8-9; (26) Yudhiṣṭhira, while requesting the citizens to return, told them that Bhīṣma, the king (Dhṛtarāṣṭra), Vidura, Kuntī, and friends would still be in the town Nāgasāhvaya (nagare nāgasāhvaye) 3. 1. 33; (27) Enraged, Dhṛtarāṣṭra told Vidura that he would no more want him (for consultations) to protect the earth or the city (Hāstinapura) (mahīm imām pālayitum puram vā) 3. 6. 17; (28) When requested by Dhṛtarāṣṭra to come back, Vidura returned to Gajāhvaya (punar āyād gajāhvayam) 3. 7. 17; (29) Kṛṣṇa told Yudhiṣṭhira that since he was involved in battle with Śālva he could not go to Hāstinapura even though he had heard about the dice game (yenāham nāgamam tadā / śrutvaiva hāstinapuram dyūtam) 3. 15. 22 (here Kṛṣṇa says that he had heard about the game; but earlier he said that he knew nothing about it 3. 14. 2, 14-16); (30) Bhīma urged Yudhiṣṭhira to attack Gajasāhvaya with his brothers (tvaramāṇo 'bhiniryātu ... adyaiva gajasāhvayam) 3. 34. 80-81; (31) Kṛṣṇa assured Yudhiṣṭhira that he could get him his kingdom back (3. 48. 23) so that he could rule the earth from Hāstinapura (tatas tvam hāstinapure...vasan /... praśādhi pṛthivīm imām //) 3. 48. 26; (32) The citizens (paurāḥ) who followed Yudhiṣṭhira to the forest returned to Nāgapura when he decided to go on a pilgrimage with Lomaśa (jagmur nāgapuram prati) 3. 90. 22; (33) Hanūmant asked Bhīma if he should go to Vāraṇasāhvaya and kill the Kauravas (gatvā vāraṇasāhvayam) 3. 150. 8;

(34) Kṛṣṇa told Yudhiṣṭhira that after the fulfilment of the contract (samaya), let Nāgapura await his arrival, for he was sure to get back Nāgapura and the whole kingdom (pratīkṣatām nāgapuram bhavantaṁ //...prapatsyase nāgapuram sarāṣṭram //) 3. 180. 34-35; (35) When released by the Pāṇḍavas from the captivity of the Gandharvas, Duryodhana left for the town (Hāstinapura) (jagāma nagaram prati) 3. 235. 23; (svapuram prayayau rājā) 3. 236. 6; Janamejaya felt that Duryodhana, proud as he was, must have found it difficult to enter Hāstinapura (nityāhamkāravādinaḥ / praveśo hāstinapure duṣkaraḥ pratibhāti me //) 3. 236. 3; (36) Duryodhana, humiliated by his adverseries, decided to fast unto death (iha prāyam upāsīsyē) and not return to the town; he asked his brothers, led by Duḥśāsana, to return to the town (prayāntv adya puram prati) 3. 238. 10-11; (na hy aham pratiyāsyāmi puram śatrurīrākṛtaḥ) 3. 238. 12; he wondered what he could tell Dhṛtarāṣṭra after reaching Vāraṇāhvaya (vāraṇāhvayam āsādy kim vakṣyāmi janādhipam) 3. 238. 13; (37) When asked by Janamejaya, Vaiśampāyana told him what happened after Duryodhana's return to Hāstinapura (āgate hāstinapuram) 3. 241. 1, 3; (38) Kings of different countries and Brāhmaṇas arrived at Dhṛtarāṣṭrapura to attend Duryodhan's Vaiṣṇava sacrifice (ājagmuḥ ... dhṛtarāṣṭrapuram prati) 3. 242. 17; after the completion of the Vaiṣṇava sacrifice (3. 241. 32), Duryodhana entered Hāstinapura 3. 242. 24; joyful, he entered the town (praviveśa puram hr̥ṣṭaḥ) 3. 243. 6; (39) The spies of the Kauravas, sent out in search of the Pāṇḍavas, returned to Nāgapura (nyavartanta te ca nāgapuram