

92. 4; Kauravas would not try to save their lives 6. 99. 46; Dhṛtarāṣṭra asked : Did Karṇa fill up the gap of Kauravas caused by the fall of Bhīṣma? (apl tat pūrayām cakre ... yat ... kauravāṇām apāvṛtam) 7. 1. 48; after Bhīṣma, Karṇa to be the refuge of Kauravas 7. 4. 8; Pāṇḍavas and Kauravyas struck one another with arrows 7. 6. 31; if Pāṇḍavas were defeated, Kṛṣṇa would kill Kauravas 7. 10. 35; Kauravas surrounded Pāṇḍavas on all sides; they were obstructed by Droṇa and Kauravyas 7. 21. 9, 14; Arjuna killed Kauravyas with arrows 7. 27. 12; he showered arrows on the army of Kauravas 7. 29. 28; all Kauravas, led by Droṇa, turned towards Abhimanyu 7. 35. 11; Duryodhana's army feared that Arjuna might dry up Kauravas (kauravāṇ śoṣayiṣyati) 7. 49. 19; a loud cry went up from Kauravas when they heard a loud roar from the side of the Pāṇḍavas 7. 53. 7; none but Kauravas could fight the army protected by Kṛṣṇa and Arjuna 7. 62. 19, 21 (Kauraveyas); Kauravas true to the dharma of Kṣatriyas (kṣatradharmarataih), did everything possible 7. 62. 22; Kaurava army appeared like an ocean (samudram iva kauravam) 7. 69. 75; Pāṇḍavas rushed towards Kauraveyas divided into three groups (kauraveyāms tri-dhābhūtān) 7. 72. 1; Kauravas respected the highly wonderful and bold feat of Kṛṣṇa and Arjuna (viz. producing water on the battlefield to refresh the horses) (apūjayan ... kauravāḥ paramādbhutam / tat tu pārthasya vikrāntam vāsudevasya cobhayoh) 7. 75. 9; seeing Kṛṣṇa and Arjuna delighted, Kauraveyas lost all hope about Duryodhana's remaining alive 7. 77. 31; Kauravas raised loud sound in response to the one raised by their opponents 7. 84. 30; delighted, Kauravas raised loud sound repeatedly 7. 85. 38; Yudhiṣṭhira said that Sātyaki would kill Kauravas 7. 85. 57; the great warriors among Kauravas had already left to protect Jayadratha (kauravāṇām mahārathāḥ) 7. 85. 67; Dhṛtarāṣṭra felt that the Kauravas were as good as overpowered by death; he wished to know how Kauravas fared against Sātyaki (grastān hi kauravān manye mṛtyunā) 7. 89. 19, 39; Kauravas would witness the heroism of Sātyaki when he destroyed the army of Kāmbojas; Duryodhana would be enraged when he heard the destruction of the Kaurava army in battle (kauravasainyasya dīryamāṇasya sam-yuge) 7. 95. 21-22; Kauravas would see Sātyaki's skill in the use of bow and arrows 7. 95. 25; the army of the Pāṇḍavas killed Kauravas in battle 7. 100. 6; Arjuna pierced through Kauraveyas all around (with his arrows) 7. 102. 102; Dhṛtarāṣṭra considered Kauravas as good as dead (vinaṣṭān kauravān manye) 7. 108. 7; Sātyaki caused severe damage to Kaurava army (kauravayodhānām kṛtvā ghoram upadravam) 7. 116. 15; no warrior equal to Sātyaki among the Kauravas 7. 116. 21; Sātyaki scattered Kauravyas like blades of grass (tṛṇavan nyasya kauravyān) 7. 116. 25; no one from Kauravas or Pāṇḍavas uttered a word when Sātyaki justified the way he killed Bhūriśravas 7. 118. 49; the foremost Kauravas (which term includes not only Duryodhana but also Karṇa, Viśasena, Śalya, Aśvatthāman and Kṛpā 7. 120. 40) surrounded Arjuna in order to protect Jayadratha 7. 120. 48; Kauravas were killed due to the wrath of Yudhiṣṭhira (tava krodha-