

Described as wonderful and full of incidents (citram, bahuvrīlāntam) 1. 2. 160, great (mahat) 1. 2. 166; most of the heroic kings were killed in the Dronaparvan 1. 2. 66; the main incidents in this parvan are listed as follows : the Samśaptakas removed Arjuna from the main battle-field; Bhagadatta, with his elephant Supratika, killed by Arjuna; young Abhimanyu killed by many heroes who were led by Jayadratha; angered Arjuna killed seven Akṣauhinīs and Jayadratha; all the Samśaptakas destroyed without a remainder; Alambusa, Śrutāyus, Jalasamdhā, Saumadatti, Virāṭa, Drupada, Ghaṭotkaca and many others killed in this parvan; Aśvatthāman, enraged at the fall of Droṇa, released his frightful Nārāyaṇāstra 1. 2. 160-165; the adhyāyas of the Dronaparvan, as counted by Vyāsa, the seer of truth (tattva-darśinā) after due thought (saṁcintya) are 170 and its ślokas 8909 (1. 2. 167-168).

Dronavadha m. : Name of the 71st parvan in the list of a hundred sub-parvans of the Bhārata supposed to have been made by Vyāsa in the Pārvasaṁgraha 1. 2. 58, 33, 70.

Described as hair-raising (lomaharṣaṇa) 1. 2. 58; fall of Droṇa referred to while listing the major events of the Dronaparvan 1. 2. 165, and in the summary of the events made by Dhṛtarāṣṭra for Saṁjaya 1. 1. 143; the parvan is related to the incidents narrated in the adhyāyas 7. 155 (or 159)-165.

Droṇābhiṣeka m. : Name of the 65th parvan in the list of a hundred sub-parvans of the Bhārata supposed to have been made by Vyāsa in the Pārvasaṁgraha 1. 2. 56, 33, 70.

Related to the adhyāyas 7. 1-15 (7. 5. 5-40).

Draupadīsatyabhāmayaḥ saṁvādaḥ : Name of the 38th parvan in the list of a hundred sub-parvans of the Bhārata supposed to have been made by Vyāsa in the Pārvasaṁgraha (saṁvādaś ca tataḥ parva draupadīsatyabhāmayaḥ) 1. 2. 45, 33, 70.

The incident is mentioned while listing the contents of the Āraṇyakaparvan (saṁvādaś civa satyayā) 1. 2. 125; the parvan is related to the adhyāyas 3. 222-224.

Draupadīsvayamvara m. : This name does not occur in the text. [See Pāñcālyāḥ svayamvaram]

Related to the adhyāyas 1. 174-189.

Draupadīharaṇa nt. : Name of the 42nd parvan in the list of a hundred sub-parvans of the Bhārata supposed to have been made by Vyāsa in the Pārvasaṁgraha 1. 2. 47, 33, 70.

Draupadī's abduction was attempted by the Sindhu king (Jayadratha) 1. 2. 47; the incident is mentioned while listing the contents of the Āraṇyakaparvan 1. 2. 123-124; the parvan is related to the incidents of the adhyāyas 3. 248-256.

Dhaundhumāra adj. : Of an upākhyāna, so called because it describes the killing of the demon Dhundhu by king Kulaśāya who then came to be known as Dhundhumāra (dhaundhumāram upākhyānam prathitam yasya karmaṇā) 3. 195. 37, 13, 36; 3. 192. 4, 7.

Described as most meritorious (dharmaṣṭham idam ākhyānam dhundhumārasya) 3. 192. 6, and holy (puṇyam) 3. 195. 38; it